

4-H Dairy, Meat and Specialty Goat Show

The 2015 Harrison County 4-H Dairy, Meat and Specialty Goat Show was held Thursday, July 23, following the 4-H Sheep Show. Earning top honors this year were Mattingly Marcum of Missouri Valley with his Champion Dairy Goat, Bailey Schaben of Dunlap with the Champion Meat Goat, and Andrew Thoreson of Woodbine with the Champion Specialty Goat.

Following is complete list of the dairy goat classes, awards and exhibitors.

Dairy Goats

Champion and Reserve Champion, Mattingly Marcum; purple ribbon, Samantha Harman; blue ribbon, Kelsie Stevens, Tanner Stevens, Melissa Thoreson and Mattingly Marcum.

Exploring Goats

First place, Riley West; second place, Natalie Brunow; purple ribbon, Dillon Woods, Madison Buffum, Darren West Jr., Cameryn Schafer, Jayleigh Stueve, Cody Brunow and Meghan Brunow.

Meat/Boer Goats (Meat Breeds)

Champion and Reserve Champion, Bailey Schaben; purple ribbon, Bailey Schaben (two), Kaitlynn Thoreson, Andrew Thoreson and Melissa Thoreson; blue ribbon, Amber Wilson (two), Melissa Thoreson, Amber Wilson and Kelsie Stevens.

Specialty Goats (Pygmy, Fainting)

Champion, Andrew Thoreson; Reserve Champion, Kaitlyn Thoreson; purple ribbon, Amber Wilson (two) and Chloe Green; blue ribbon, Amber Wilson and Chloe Green.

Discovering 4-H – Junior Dairy Goats

Discovering 4-H'ers are those who have just completed third grade. They exhibit their goats in a non-competitive class. This year, there were two participants: Jaiden Jahn and Marki Helgenberger, both of Logan.

Showmanship

Junior Showmanship: First place, Cody Brunow; second place, Riley West; third place, Dillon Woods.
Intermediate Showmanship: First place, Natalie Brunow; second place, Cameryn Schafer; third place, Chloe Green.

Senior Showmanship: First place, Mattingly Marcum; second place, Meghan Brunow; third place, Samantha Harman.