

4-H Sheep Show - Did the Discovering 4-H'ers exhibit their ewes?

The 2015 4-H Sheep Show was held Thursday morning, July 23, in the show ring at the Harrison County Fairgrounds in Missouri Valley. Walter Schaben of Dunlap took home top honors for Market Pair and Market Individual. Austin Adair was awarded the plaque for the Grand Champion Market Pen of Three. Carly Lehan, also of Dunlap, exhibited the Champion Commercial Ewe.

Following is a complete list of the sheep classes, awards and exhibitors.

Market Classes

Market Pen of Three: Grand Champion, Austin Adair; Reserve Champion, Walter Schaben; purple ribbon, Cathryn Klein.

Market Pair: Grand Champion, Walter Schaben; Reserve Champion, Austin Adair; purple ribbon, Carly Lehan and Cathryn Klein; blue ribbon, Mattingly Marcum.

Market Individual: Grand Champion, Walter Schaben; Reserve Grand Champion, Carly Lehan; purple ribbon, Cathryn Klein (two), Connor Ferris, Walter Schaben and Austin Adair (two); blue ribbon, Carly Lehan and Mattingly Marcum (two).

Breeding Sheep

Commercial Ewe Lamb (born after Jan. 1 this year): Champion, Carly Lehan; Reserve Champion, Walter Schaben.

Discovering 4-H

Discovering 4-H'ers are those who have just completed third grade. They exhibit their sheep in a non-competitive class. This year, there were two participants: Jaiden Jahn and Marki Helgenberger, both of Logan.

Showmanship

Junior Showmanship: First place, Connor Ferris.

Intermediate Showmanship: First place, Carly Lehan.

Senior Showmanship: First place, Walter Schaben; second place, Cathryn Klein; third place, Austin Adair.